traditional style, and chat with the villagers to learn about their lives and work. Cycling on top of the dike along the Red River, we will see where two great rivers meet.

Stop by a local temple on the bank of the Red River. If we're lucky, we may see a unique ceremony of Vietnamese people, "Len Dong" (going into a trance). Foreigners are fascinated by this unique ceremony!

Have a drink with a family in the village to know more about their life, and how the village and area are changing.
